Iowa Civil Rights Commission

- The Iowa Civil Rights Commission is a neutral, fact-finding law enforcement agency that enforces the "Iowa Civil Rights Act of 1965," Iowa's anti-discrimination law. The mission of the Iowa Civil Rights Commission is: "Ending discrimination through effective enforcement of the Iowa Civil Rights Act."

First Amendment Day

- The Greenlee School's First Amendment Day gives Iowa State students, faculty, alumni and community members the opportunity to celebrate their rights and make their voices heard. Each year, the Greenlee School hosts a weeklong celebration of the five freedoms granted by the First Amendment through events that showcase these rights. First Amendment Day is sponsored by Lee Enterprises and the Greenlee School of Journalism and Communication.

Greenlee School of Journalism and Communication

- The Greenlee School of Journalism and Communication is the largest program within Iowa State's College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. As of February 2014, it has 228 advertising majors, 369 journalism majors and 119 public relations majors. There are also 128 minors and 50 graduate students.
